The Woodman Inn

The
Woodman Inn

Set in the centre
of a historic hamlet, nestled within the
foothills of Yorkshire's
South Pennines

...our beautifully refurbished 18th century country inn offers superb food, a stunning setting for your photographs, impeccable service and unrivalled attention to every detail.

The tranquil hamlet of Thunderbridge is rich in history, plentiful with wildlife, and such a peaceful woodland location that you might just be joined on your special day by the local deer, a fox or badger.

Known by the locals as "God's own county," you and your guests will enjoy complete privacy in this rustic haven of unspoilt Yorkshire countryside. This idyllic location truly is the perfect setting for the most romantic of weddings.

The Woodman Inn is fully licensed to hold civil ceremonies, and for your special day, you will have exclusive use of our intimate wedding venue, accommodation for your guests and a personal Wedding Co-ordinator, who will work with you to ensure your day is absolutely perfect.

Start your celebrations with delicious canapés & perfectly chilled champagne in our beautiful piano bar

...framed with gorgeous stone mullion windows and featuring a wonderful baby grand piano. Our dedicated and experienced Wedding Co-ordinator will help you plan every detail for your special day, including arranging a pianist or musicians to create the perfect ambience.

Cool and contemporary in summer, warm and welcoming in winter, The Woodman Inn changes with the season to always deliver the picture perfect wedding.

You and your special guests will also have exclusive use of our beautifully-tended picturesque garden, framed by the nearby woods, creating a stunning visual backdrop for your wedding photographs and video, giving you a delightful reminder of your perfect day, for many years to come.

Our elegantly refurbished wedding venue can comfortably accommodate anything from 20 to 150 civil ceremony and wedding breakfast guests, with plenty of extra space for additional guests at your evening reception.

The venue's décor is a classic muted palette, designed to complement any special theme.

Sometimes it's the very smallest of details that are the most important

...and our professional wedding planner is therefore always on hand to help you choose all those finishing touches which will make your wedding day absolutely perfect.

From dressing the room in your favourite shades to finding that special piece of music for your all-important first dance, to adding all those little extras to make the experience magical, our attention to detail is second-to-none.

Your wedding day is truly special, and whether it's a formal day or a relaxed gathering, we want to help you create a wonderfully memorable occasion, leaving you and your guests to enjoy your perfect celebration.

Nothing is too much trouble for our experienced wedding planner and the team at The Woodman Inn.
